

Serving with her values

In 1963, Ohio State sophomore Jim Grote opened the first Donatos Pizza on the South Side of Columbus. Daughter Jane Grote Abell '88 long ago adopted his philosophies, inspired by the Golden Rule, and has found her own unique ways to build up her associates and her community.

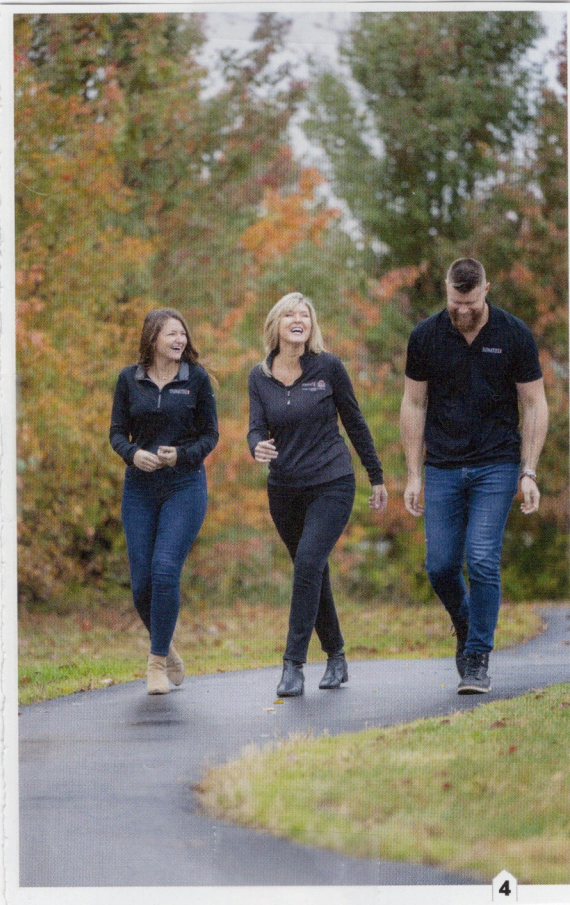

Stories by Ashley Rabinovitch | Photos by Jodi Miller

| 2 | Abell's daughter Tori Abell '22 is the lead teacher working with children up to 3 years of age at the Reeb Avenue Center.

3

4

| 3 | At the Edge Innovation Hub, part of Donatos, Abell spends time with (from left) son Tony Capuano, daughter Brie Williams, dad Jim Grote and brother Tom Grote.

| 4 | After encouraging Brie and Tony to build work experience outside Donatos, Abell was thrilled when they decided to return to carry on the family legacy.